

Kids In Dublin... TOGETHER
STARTS SUNDAY, APRIL 27, 2008
FROM 3:00PM-5:00PM

- Are you an Elementary aged kid who would like to hang out with other kids who are trying to cope with having a parent/family member who is addicted to alcohol/drugs?
- Are you a parent dealing with helping your child not feel like the only child in the world who has a parent/family member struggling with addiction?

COOL...then bring a parent/adult and join us at the Dublin Recreation Center (DCRC) once a month on the last Sunday of each month beginning on April 27, 2008 from 3:00-5:00 to swim, play games, hang out and most importantly fellowship with other families in similar struggles. Ask for the "Kids in Dublin" support group room at the DCRC front desk.

Cost (if not a DCRC member) is $8/adult $4/child if you will be using the pool facilities. (Adult must supervise their child at all times both in the support group meeting room and in the pool area.)
Just hanging out in the support group room is free.

Kids In Dublin...TOGETHER

Kids in Dublin...TOGETHER was started by a mom with a 10 year old son who needed to find support for her child amidst the struggles of dealing with addiction in a family member. Many support groups exist for adults, teens, spouses and adult family members but many times, the ones hurt the most are left out. Elementary aged children struggle with significant issues of grief, anger, frustration and loneliness when one of their parents is addicted to alcohol/drugs.

Kids In Dublin...TOGETHER provides a fun and safe atmosphere where you and your child can play and feel free to talk with others their own age about the struggles they are facing and just have fun with "someone else who understands" while giving you, their parent, the opportunity to talk to other parents in the same situation.
